The Power of the Earth

When life challenges us and brings us face to face with the unknown, it can be deeply nourishing to draw upon the resources of the archetypal world. Archetypes connect us to the imaginal realm, the richness of the collective unconscious, it opens a world of possibilities. They offer an invaluable resource for renewing our strength and rediscovering meaning.

Through dance, we can more easily connect with these thought-forms, these fields of energy that open the doors to ancestral, quantum and magical resources.

I invite you to draw upon the telluric forces of the Earth, to connect with the elements, and to allow wild power to dance through us, replenish our being and speak to us.

Together, we will explore how to channel this power into the beauty of movement and put it in service of our lives. The archetypes of witches and wizards carry a history woven with shadow and light. Their legacy is rich, their power profound. They are part of our collective unconscious, among the resources of the imaginal world.

Lucie Nerot: I am an Open Floor teacher and trainer. My passion for dance, music, art, and the psyche, my quest for truth and my love of the sacred has lead me to train with exceptional explorers of consciousness : Richard Moss, Gabrielle Roth, Alejandro Jodorowsky. I have been dancing and teaching internationally for over 20 years. I have been told my combination of clarity, kindness, and a sense of humour, creates a space that can hold you in your wild power as well as your vulnerability.
